MISS GOULD AIDS MORE SOLDIERS.

Seven Convalescents Join Those Already at the Hospital at Tarrytown.

FRIENDLESS AND SICK.

Battle Creek Sanitarium at Prohibition Park to Care for Troops.

Seven feeble, wasted men sat just within hearing of Miss Helen Gould's voice yesterday. "We must act and act quickly," they heard her say, and a sigh of relief passed down the line. Miss Gould, an assistant Director-General, presided at the Windsor Hotel over the meeting of the National War Relief Association's Board of Directors. The seven men waiting outside wore the uniforms of United States soldiers. They had been discharged from Roosevelt Hospital as convalescents. Ernest Korte was at the head of the

A wagon load of Labor Day pleasure seekers was held up by a highwayman near New Brunswick last Monday night. In the party were Charles Brower and William C. Witly with their families. As they passed the outskirts of Iselin on their way home from Boynton Beach a man stepped out from behind a tree and, drawing a revolver, demanded that they stop.

Mr. Witly jumped from the wagon and ran across the fields to the Pennsylvania Railroad station where he secured Ticket Agent Wortman and another man. The men ran back and the ticket agent recognized the highwayman, who was running away, as Patrick Dunn.

Detective House found Dunn at the home of his sister, Mrs. Marty, and arrested him. The revolver was found in Dunn's pocket. Dunn said that he was not after money, but thought that the horses were stolen. He will be tried next Tuesday.

He belongs to the District of Columbia Volunteers. "Three months I have been without pay," he said. "Seven weeks I was without food that I could eat in Santiago. Would I fight again? If I must."

Private Ratcliffe, of the Second Regular Infantry, had seen no money for four months. Deafened from cold contracted from lying on damp ground, James Eitz, of the Sixteenth Regular Infantry, confessed himself destitute.

Next to him sat Robert S. Bowley, of the Twenty-fourth Regular Infantry. "Since May I have been without pay," he said. "Since May I have been ill. If I had not come here what would I have done? I should have begged elsewhere."

Edward J. Martin, of the Twelfth Regiment, New York Volunteers, Charles Leary, of Company B, Twenty-fifth Regular Infantry, and Paul Beyer, of the Third United States Infantry, all reiterated the same story.

As speedily as possible arrangements were made to have these friendless, destitute men provided for. During the day they joined those who had preceded them at the Tarrytown Hospital.

Fourteen convalescent soldiers are already there in the asylum that was given at the suggestion of Miss Helen Gould. Thirteen of the men came up from Mount Rank on Monday afternoon, piloted by Mrs. Walworth, director-general of the National Woman's War Relief Association.

When they arrived here they were met by Dr. A. Ernest Gallant and Mrs. Gallant, representing the association. They were given a good meal and sent to their new home within sight of Miss Gould's beautiful Lyndhurst.

In the interest of the relief work Dr. Gallant has undertaken to supervise all the medical work among such soldiers as are brought to the attention of the society. He will also, after the men have been dismissed from the various hospitals as cured, in order to make way for others, decide whether they are fit to continue on their way, many of them to distant homes; whether they should be sent to some hospital for further treatment; or whether they may only need a few days' good lodging and food. Already he has secured 1,200 rooms suitable for this purpose in different mansions and lodging houses in and about New York.

An offer from the Battle Creek Sanitarium at Prohibition Park to care for some of the convalescent soldiers free of charge was thankfully received and accepted by the society.

ROUGH RIDERS AT MANHATTAN BEACH.

Woman's Patriotic League Begins Its Welcome to the Heroes To-day.

The welcome to the naval and war heroes planned by the Woman's Patriotic League begins at Manhattan Beach to-day. It is Rough Rider's Day.

General Joseph Wheeler will surely be on view, accompanied by regiments parading to martial music. They will attend a concert given by the Bostonians in the afternoon and listen to speechmaking by distinguished men of the country.

General Howard Carroll will welcome them, and Bourke Cockran will sing their praises as American soldiers.

The festival of peace will last four days. There will be a Naval Day, when Admiral Sampson, Commodore Philip, Captain Evans and their crews will shake hands with everybody and talk of their deeds. There will be a Municipal Day, when high officials will shake hands with war heroes and fair women will applaud and throw flowers and march about Manhattan Beach to the sound of life and drum.

The ceremonies to-day will begin at 3 o'clock, and last through the evening.

WHOLESALE ADVICE.

For People Whose Stomachs Are Weak and Digestion Poor.

Dr. Harlandson, whose opinion in diseases is worthy of attention, says: "When a man or woman comes to me complaining of indigestion, loss of appetite, sour stomach, belching, sour watery risings, headaches, sleeplessness, lack of ambition and a general run down nervous condition I advise them to take after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, allowing the tablet to dissolve in the mouth and thus mingle with the food eaten. The result is that the food is speedily digested before it has time to sour and ferment. These tablets will digest food anyway, whether the stomach wants to or not, because they contain harmless digestive principles, vegetable essences, pepsin and Golden Seal, which supply just what the weak stomach lacks."

"I have advised the tablets with great success, both in curing indigestion and to build up the tissues, increase flesh in thin, nervous patients, whose real trouble was dyspepsia, and as soon as the stomach was put to rights they did not know what sickness was."

A fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be bought at any drug store, and as they are not a secret patent medicine, they can be used as often as desired with full assurance that they contain nothing harmful in the slightest degree; on the contrary, any one whose stomach is at all deranged will find great benefit from the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They will cure any form of stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach. Full size package at druggists 50c. or $1.00, or by mail from Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.
